Mike's Musings

Triple L - A great big thank-you to team leader Craig Autry and the other deacons that participated in taking the Lord's Supper to our homebound folks last Sunday! That was the largest group to receive it that I can remember. Such a blessing to call folks up and ask if they would like us to come and sense how much it means to each one to have someone visit. Our next outing will be around the first of April.

Music and Worship - These are exciting times for our Chancel Choir as we welcomed back three more singers this past Wednesday. But even in our spread out arrangement in the loft there is plenty of room for more! Won't be long before we will begin work on our spring program.

Our Children's Choirs are also back to work, though we had to miss this past Sunday. We look forward to hearing from each of them at some point in the spring.

Welcome to Preschool

Jonathan's Corner

Snow? Ice? Rain? Or just slush! We waited patiently to see some snow, but all we got was ice and slush. Maybe it will actually snow sometime this winter. Did you know that each snowflake is different? Each time God makes it snow, no two snowflakes are created exactly the same.

Just like snowflakes, when God created us, He made each one of us different and special. Some of us are tall, some are short. Some of us have dark colored hair, some of us have lighter colored hair. God has given us all different spiritual gifts and talents that are all as individual as a snowflake. God has blessed us all with different spiritual gifts. Be excited as you can share your spiritual gifts and talents with our FBC family and community.

Key verse: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11
