Mike's Musings

We are so thankful for the many prayers and concerns expressed for Lu Anne's family during these final days of her dad's life. He continues to be comfortable and enjoys very brief visits with family. We look forward to spending some time with him very soon, Lord willing! We are blessed in the knowledge that he knows the Lord and will soon be reunited with his wife, Wanda, who we lost just over four years ago.

Thank you so much to the Triple L committee for a great lunch last week! Our guest, Kelli Laudate, did a great job telling us about things going on and future plans for downtown Sanford. We look forward to having Joe Hanna tell us about his harp and playing it for us next month.
